

ANJOLEE, OF KANYE WEST'S SUNDAY SERVICE CHOIR, RELEASES NEW VIDEO, "FEEL THE LOVE" ANJOLEE'S NEW ALBUM, BLOOM, RELEASED ON FEBRUARY 20, 2020

MAY 16, 2020 (LOS ANGELES, CA) - Singer/songwriter Anjolee of the most talked about gospel group "Sunday Service Choir", conducted by Grammy Award winning singer Jason White under Kanye West, is releasing her new single and music video "Feel The Love" on 5/22/2020. Produced by ChuckHeat with the video directed by Richard Morgan & Tim Banks, "Feel the Love" is the first single off of BLOOM, Anjolee's first solo album. The single is available for stream and download everywhere. "BLOOM is a collection of songs that have deep meaning for me. Each song infuses my musical influences and global travels. Though I was mostly influenced by soul, I came to love classical music, country and classic rock as well - anything where the harmonies dance with each other, like lovers.", the vocalist shares. With a voice like "melted chocolate", Anjolee has made a name for herself in the industry for writing with artists from Chaka Khan to Scarface, to sharing the stage with H.E.R., T.I., Donnie McClurkin, Aloe Blacc and Kanye West. Anjolee's vocal style is smooth, edgy, and sweetly powerful. Her unique style is an eclectic, energetic yet smooth blend of urban, hip-hop, R&B, soul, gospel, pop and rock.
